LOK SABHA

CORRIGENDUM

In accordance with the Ruling of the Chair in the Lok Sabha on the 2nd August, 1968, the following two sub-paragraphs, which had been expunged by the Chairman, Select Committee on the Banking Laws (Amendment) Bill, 1967 from paragraph 6 of the Minute of Dissent given by Sarvashri Indrajit Gupta, Madhu Limaye, Jyotirmoy Bosu and Samarendra Kundu in pursuance of the provisions of Direction 91(1) of the Directions issued by the Speaker under the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Lok Sabha, have been restored and shall form part of the Minute of Dissent:

“(iv) Moreover, there is a great danger of the Banks falling under Congress Party control under the new dispensation without being liberated from the influence of Big Business in any way. This is borne out by the fact that several Congressmen have been appointed directors viz. Messrs. Utsov Parikh and G. B. Nawalkar (Bank of Baroda); Tribuwanadas Patel (Central Bank); Shantilal Shah, M.P., Kantilal Ghia, M.L.A.; S. N. Desai and Raghunath Singh (Union Bank); Jashbhai Patel (Bank of India) and Maganbhai Patel (Bank of India).

(v) The Thacker affair has also established beyond doubt the collusion between Big Business, Bureaucracy and Ministers. It is established that the Minister for Industrial Development and his senior civil servants had given their consent to Prof. Thacker's accepting directorship of a leading Commercial Bank and but for the opposition of Mr. Mohan Kumaramanglam and Dr. Paranjape and vigilance of Parliament the deal would have gone through and the inquiry into one aspect of monopoly sabotaged. It is, therefore, necessary to give directions which will ensure that Chairman and Boards of Directors of the Banks do not become subservient to the ruling party."

These sub-paragraphs, therefore, shall be deemed to have been inserted between the existing sub-paragraphs (iii) and (iv) of para 6 on page 520 of the Gazette of India, Extraordinary, Part II, Section 2 dated the 6th May, 1968 and subsequent sub-paragraphs of paragraph 6 shall be renumbered accordingly.

S. L. SHAKDHER,

Secretary.
